Question

Namasthe.

I would like to know about my career. I am a healer and a counselor. Currently my job is ok but feel stagnation in my progress.

Prediction

As per your birth details you have Sagittarius as your ascendant and Taurus as your Moon sign

Currently you are under the influence of Jupiter major period from 2009 until 2025.

The 10th House plays an important role in bestowing good career. You have Sagittarius as your ascendant and the 10th house from that sign is Virgo ruled by the planet Mercury. He is moderately placed in the sign Cancer which is your 8th house . This is the reason you have taken up healing and counselor as your profession. The Mercury's placement in the sign Cancer which is a watery sign would always bring ups and down, as water element lacks stability. However, as the choice of your profession is very much suitable for you, you will see good name and fame and earn good money through the same. Mars aspects your 10th house of profession would make you successful in foreign land and make you a great healer. As this healing ability comes from the past life. In Dasama the important division chart for career, Mercury is in debilitation sign , again in watery sign. However, he is along with the Moon would make you a most sorted healer.

Current Jupiter period is influencing along with the Moon which is will influence you until November 2021. The transit of Rahu in the sign Taurus is influencing your birth chart Moon causing little anxious about your future. Do not panic stay calm and relax, the minor period of Mars in taking over from Moon and will influence you until October 2022, is going to bring a break thru in your career.

Jupiter your ascendant lord and the current major period lord is making a move to the sign Aquarius on 21 Nov 2021. This transit would help you find good opportunity and take you to next level in your career. One of your old clients will play an important role in bring in customers for you. She would also be willing to work with you or invest in your business. In that case make a appropriate dealing and documentation or agreement before proceeding.
